No day stalls - No early stabling

Late Fee $15.00 after May 10, 2012

Late Membership Fees: $10 plus regular membership fee.

All riders must be members of the Equestrian Association of the South West Region (AERSO). Annual membership fee is $25.<sup>00</sup> for Juniors $30.<sup>00</sup> for Seniors. Proof of membership must be shown at the show or a late membership fee of $10 will be levied along with the normal membership fee.

Office fees are non-refundable. All scratches will still be responsible for this fee.

ASTM safety approved helmets must be worn by exhibitors at all times when mounted.

Judges are not permitted to judge any AERSO shows more than twice in the same ring, in the same year. This show and all other AERSO Horse Shows are open to all horses and riders and will act as a qualifying competition for the Jeux Equestre du Quebec. These shows are governed by the rules of Equine Canada which are available online at www.equinecanada.ca

In order to be eligible for the Jeux Equestre Finals and/or AERSO year-end awards exhibitors must compete at a minimum of 3 shows, results will only be counted for the best 5 out of 7 shows. For points to count for the finals and year end awards, there must be a minimum of 4 entries in a class.

In the jumper divisions only the same horse/rider combination will have points counted to qualify for the Jeux Equestre Finals. If this rule is not respected, no points will be counted for this horse.

Horses and/or ponies entered in all equitation classes over fences are permitted to go a second time in the same class with a different rider.

Junior A riders are not permitted to ride small ponies.

Amateur classes are open to non-pro riders, as per the non-pro rule (Article G411) in the EC Rule book.
